

IN Diplomacy

MISSION TO COMMUNICATE

Click here for more on Sun Media

Supported by

DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR CORPS SINGAPORE

IN Diplomacy Website Launch & Welcome for New Dean of DCCS

At today's Diplomatic and Consular Corps Singapore (DCCS) reception at the Fullerton Hotel, farewell speeches and mementos were given to several members of the diplomatic community here who have been re-assigned to new postings: HE Yael Rubinstein, Ambassador of Israel; HE Dr Michael Witter, Ambassador of Germany; HE Dr Michael Putsch, Ambassador of the European Union and finally, the current Dean of the DCCS, HE Jairo Hernandez Milian, Ambassador of Costa Rica announced he will also be going on to Australia this month. At the same time, he took the opportunity to introduce to the diplomatic community gathered there the new Dean HE Zenon Kosiniak-Kamysz, Ambassador of Poland.

During the lunch reception, Ambassador Jairo also announced to DCCS members the launch of the IN Diplomacy website (www.indiplomacy.com). The online publication which disseminates news about diplomatic events, personalities, activities and visits was originally launched as an e-newsletter with the support of previous Dean HE Luis Fernando Serra (former Ambassador of Brazil) in June 2016. Three issues into publication, it received the official support of the DCCS under the leadership of Ambassador Jairo Hernandez Milian.

Outgoing Ambassadors and their Spouses

HE Yael Rubinstein, Ambassador of Israel and her husband

HE Dr Michael Witter, Ambassador of Germany and wife

HE Dr Michael Putsch, Ambassador of the European Union and wife

New Dean HE Zenon Kosiniak-Kamysz, Ambassador of Poland (on the left) and HE Ambassador Jairo Hernandez Milian of Costa Rica

Publisher & editor-in-chief of IN Diplomacy Mrs Nomita Dhar presenting a memento to HE Jairo Hernandez Milian

